

Launch Your Career in Public Accounting — Right Here in Maine!

Are you a soon-to-be or recent college graduate looking to build your accounting career in a place that values collaboration, community, and quality of life? At Albin, Randall & Bennett (ARB), we're proud to be part of the vibrant business and civic fabric of Maine. ARB is a full-service public accounting, tax, and advisory services firm serving businesses and families across New England. Our team of highly skilled financial professionals brings expertise, precision, and strategic insight to every client relationship, driving growth and success.

What You'll Do

As an Associate I, you'll gain meaningful experience while expanding your classroom knowledge with a firm that champions your success. You'll join a collaborative team of accounting and advisory professionals serving individuals, businesses, and organizations throughout New England. With a strong commitment to mentorship, we'll help you develop a solid foundation in tax, attest, and advisory services.

In your first year, you can expect to:

- Prepare federal and state tax returns for individuals and entities (corporations, partnerships, nonprofits, etc.)
- Assist with attest engagements and financial statement preparation
- Build professional relationships, both internally and externally
- Develop your communication and analytical skills
- Learn on the job with the guidance of experienced CPAs
- Participate in firm-wide training, professional development, and team-building events

What You Bring:

- A bachelor's degree in accounting (or related field) from a four-year college or university
- Eligibility to sit for the CPA exam or intent to pursue certification
- Strong attention to detail, time management, and professional judgment
- A collaborative mindset and a desire to learn
- A commitment to service excellence — to clients, colleagues, and the community

Why Start Your Career With Us?

At ARB, we empower you to shape your own career success. Our flexible, supportive workplace prioritizes work-life harmony, fosters a culture of belonging, and offers extensive professional development to help you achieve your goals.

Accounting majors/minors are encouraged to apply. Please submit cover letter, resume and unofficial transcript to Josie McGaw at jmcgaw@arbcpa.com

ARB provides equal employment opportunities and cultivates an environment where everyone can excel.
