

Intern – Tax Season 2026

Albin, Randall & Bennett (ARB), a full-service public accounting and business consulting firm located in Portland, Maine, is seeking bright and highly motivated individuals interested in a rewarding tax internship opportunity in public accounting. Join our team of professionals and receive the training necessary to work with our clients on a wide range of tax engagements. Our clients include high net worth individuals and a wide variety of industries including auto dealers, credit unions, construction contractors, manufacturers, nonprofit organizations and other closely held businesses.

Benefits:

- Opportunity to grow and learn by gaining practical public accounting experience
- ARB invests heavily in onboard training
- Join a welcoming and supportive company culture
- Competitive compensation
- And much more – visit our website at www.arbcpa.com and follow us on Instagram @arbcpa

The firm is looking for interns for tax season 2026. Accounting majors/minors are encouraged to apply.

- Hours of internship: 35-40+ hours
- Internship type: Tax (Audit opportunities could arise)
- Approximate start date: 01/12/26
- Approximate end date: 04/15/26

Please submit cover letter, resume, and unofficial transcript to Josie McGaw at jmcgaw@arbcpa.com

ARB provides equal employment opportunities and cultivates an environment where everyone can excel.