Amy Gardella, CPA, is a Senior Manager with ARB who provides specialized accounting and attest services to automotive dealerships, construction companies, commercial entities, and employee benefit plans. She partners with clients to develop practical solutions that enhance their financial reporting and support their business objectives.

Amy is experienced in successfully managing audit, review, and compilation engagements, as well as providing business advisory services. Clients value Amy's clear communication and ability to break down complex concepts into simple terms.

Amy began working in public accounting in 2012 and joined ARB in 2018. In addition to assisting clients, she serves on the firm's Community Committee and contributes to internal training within the firm's A&A practice.

Originally from Ohio, Amy now lives in Boothbay, Maine. She's happiest with a fresh cup of coffee, a warm blanket, and a good book. She also enjoys exploring new places, whether it's a weekend getaway or a trip abroad.
