Jackie Haug, CPA, is a Tax Manager with ARB who serves clients in the auto dealership and high-net-worth sectors. She provides comprehensive tax planning, compliance, and advisory services, helping clients navigate complex federal and multi-state requirements. Beyond these focus areas, Jackie also works with clients across a variety of industries, bringing a well-rounded perspective and adaptable problem-solving approach.

In addition to her client work, Jackie actively contributes to internal initiatives, including developing onboarding processes and supporting the firm's tax training programs. She takes pride in fostering team growth and helping new staff build a strong technical foundation.

Jackie began her career in public accounting in 2016 and joined ARB in 2020. Known for her approachable demeanor and steady professionalism, Jackie is committed to supporting both clients and colleagues, contributing to a positive, solutions-focused work environment.

Jackie lives in Saco with her husband and dog. Outside of work she likes to travel, cook, and spend time with family.
