Tori Vergara, CPA, is a Tax Manager at ARB who provides tax compliance and consulting services to auto dealerships, high-net-worth individuals, and private foundations. She applies a clear, strategic approach to helping clients navigate complex tax matters and make informed decisions aligned with their goals.

Tori works extensively on federal and state tax filings, year-round planning, and specialized consulting projects. Clients appreciate Tori's professionalism, responsiveness, and thoughtful guidance tailored to their specific needs and goals.

Tori started her career in public accounting in 2016 and joined ARB in 2021. In addition to serving clients, she mentors staff within the firm's tax practice and contributes to internal training and process improvements to support consistency and excellence across the team.

Tori lives in Gorham, Maine, with her husband and their two dogs. Outside of work, she enjoys knitting, exploring nearby hiking trails, and participating in book club.
